DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, Proprietor.

THE LATE ELECTION OUTRAGE IN RICHMOND.

The following communication, from the gentlemen composing the Conservative ticket in Richmond in the late election, setting forth the facts connected with the conduct of election, was sent to Gen. Schofield, on Saturday. It is a straight forward, manly paper, and will command the attention of all who read it:

Richmond, Oct. 31st., 1867.

Major General Schofield:

Sir:—A sense of duty to the people of Richmond who honored us with their votes, to our city and our State, impels us to address you this communication. To have discharged this duty at an earlier day might have subjected us to the imputation of acting under the undue excitement of a warm political canvass. Time enough has now elapsed for cool reflection, and, after calmly reviewing the manner in which the recent election for delegates to the Convention was conducted in this city, we feel constrained, in the name of the people of Richmond—a law-loving and law-abiding people—respectfully, but earnestly, to enter a protest in their behalf and in our own, against the confirmation of the proceedings of the so-called election on the 22nd. and 23rd. of this month.

We beg leave to state our reasons for entering this protest:

The election was held under your order, of date —— ——, declaring that it should be held in Richmond city, on the 22nd. and 23d. days of October, and should close at sunset of the 23d. October. This order, in conformity with the act of Congress, was published thirty days before the election was held. It specified the beginning and the end of the election in clear and definite terms, and after its promulgation no power known to the statutes of Congress could legally change either the times or places of election, without again complying with Congress and giving full thirty days notice of such change. A change was made without such notice. At sunset of the 23d. of October, the polls were not closed as required by your published order; but they were continued through the following day, and the hour of midnight was reached before the polling of votes ceased. We claim that this extension of the period of voting was irregular and illegal, without precedent in the history of popular elections in this country, and without authority, and we insist that the persons elected at the closing of the polls at sunset of the 23d. October are entitled to the return as delegates to the Convention. Fortunately, there is no difficulty in ascertaining the vote as it stood then. At that time 4,773 white votes had been polled and 4,252 black votes.—Giving to the Radical ticket all the white votes they received during the whole voting, say forty-eight, and crediting them with the entire black vote up to that time, say 4,300, they will still be found to be in the minority several hundred votes, these protestants having then received of white votes alone (not counting the black one.)

From this exhibit it is clear that these protestants are entitled to the return as delegates to the Convention. The majority claimed by the Radical ticket was in consequence of irregularities we will now mention—such irregularities, we may confidently say, as were never before permitted or known in the United States.

The voting was continued into two nights, and into one of them until midnight, and after. From sunrise to sunset, by daylight, all elections in this country have hitherto been held. The reason for this rule is obvious. The voter should vote at a time when he can be seen and recognized, and unless he votes at such time, there can be no guarantee against fraud. If there was necessity or law for keeping the polls open beyond the two days prescribed in your order, we submit that they should have been kept open in the day-time only.

The polls were closed at some of the wards or precincts at sunset of the second day of election, and kept open at others; and the ward at which they were kept open the longest (till midnight certainly of the third day) was the ward in which the disproportion between the white and black voters, in favor of the blacks, was greater than in any other ward in the city. If kept open in one they should be kept open in all the wards. Just here permit us to call your attention to a fact which is its own comment. From the hour of 7 o'clock, P. M., when it was dark, on the third day, to the hour of closing the polls that night, there were more black votes polled than were polled in the same time on any one of the three preceding days, although the period of voting on each day was longer by several hours than the time occupied in that night.

The election in Madison Ward was held at the City Hall. The whites voted at a window on one side of the building, the blacks at a window on another side of the building. About sunset of the 23rd October, the second day of the election, one of the officers having charge of the election, inside the building, announced that the polls were closed, and pulled down the window at which the whites voted. The white voters went away, supposing that the voting of blacks as well as whites was ended at that ward. At the very moment this announcement of the closing of the polls was made, the blacks on the other side of the building were voting, and continued to vote for more than an hour afterwards.—This matter was called to your attention at the time, and you checked this illegal voting by the order to close the polls for that day. During the interval between, however, more than seventy black votes had been polled.

A black man offered to vote on one of the days of election. His name could not be found on the register. He came back the next day, and again offered to vote. He was reminded of his rejection the day before; he admitted the fact, but said that he had been since to Mr. Hunnicutt's office and got registered; and he further stated that he has left a large number of colored people at Mr. Hunnicutt's office getting registered.

This black man was arrested for an attempt to vote illegally, and is now, as we are informed, before a military commission for trial. This case is specially cited to illustrate the fraudulent manner in which the election was managed.

No white man by threat or intimidation or otherwise improperly interfered with any black to influence his vote. Great order prevailed among the whites during the three days voting, although many things occurred which were well calculated to excite them. But on the part of black men there was such interference with voters of their own race.

Threats, intimidations, actual violence in more than one instance, attest this fact, the blacks were not allowed the freedom of choice. They voted under a duress, amounting almost to compulsion. At some of the voting places, if not at all, the tickets of the black men, while in line approaching the polls, were examined, and when one was found with a conservative ticket in hand, the ticket was taken from him and torn up. This occurred repeatedly, as we have been informed, and verily believe.

Force and violence were used by black men upon blacks, to prevent their voting the Conservative ticket. Their lives were threatened, and would have been taken in several cases, but for the interference of white men and the police.

The truth is, a reign of terror ruled the black man in this election; a reign inaugurated by their own leaders and secret organizations.

A majority secured by such irregularities as these should not be regarded. They were illegal and in contravention of the law of Congress, under which the election was had, and the purpose of the act of Congress should not be frustrated by such action. We claim to be fairly entitled to the returns as delegates to the Convention, because at the close of the polls at sunset of the second day, we had received the majority of the votes cast, and we most respectfully insist that the return should be given to us.

If you shall take the same view of the matter, which we insist is the legal and right view, there can be no doubt of our title to the return; and it seems to us, with all due respect, that you are the proper person to decide this question, and to decide it now. We do not desire to be remitted to the Convention; that body, when it meets, will hardly devote time enough to the investigation of the facts, and it is unnecessary to say that we could not expect from it that cool, deliberate and impartial hearing which your official conduct leads us to expect from yourself. Strike from the polls all illegal votes, whether illegal because not cast at the proper time or because cast by unauthorized voters, and we believe the majority will be largely in favor of the return of these protestants.

It is proper to say that on the night of the second day's voting, some of us had agreed on a protest against the extension of the time of voting, but the lateness of the hour at which it was prepared, prevented our obtaining the signatures of all the Conservative candidates and its being forwarded to you. After the voting on the third day and night was concluded, we thought it proper, in a matter of such grave moment, involving questions of such importance, to deliberate before entering this protest. We do so now as an act of cool, unimpassioned judgment. In taking this step, if we know ourselves, we are not stimulated by any motive of personal ambition, but are solely influenced by the desire for equal and exact justice. Our fellow citizens, as well as we, feel aggrieved by the methods and the wrongs of the recent elections, and we have, in their behalf and in our own, stated, in all frankness, the reasons for protesting against it.

Hoping that it will be your pleasure to give the return to those who, we believe, are fairly entitled to it, we have the honor, sir, to subscribe ourselves

Your obedient servants,

Thos. J. Evans,
Alex. H. Sands,
N. A. Sturdivant,
Marmaduke Johnson,
Wm. Taylor.

Now a few words to my customers and friends: You see a great many different styles of advertisements. Some say they are in "luck again;" some say they have "hit the nail on the head;" some "selling out at cost;" some to "make room for a new stock;" some one thing and some another. But allow me to say, whether I am in luck, or whether I hit the nail on the head, or whether I missed the nail entirely, or failed to advertise "selling out at cost," I have sold out my old stock, (while they are still hammering away over their old stock,) and have been North and bought a new stock. My goods are now in Store, and opened for inspection.

COME AND LOOK AT THEM.

I told my customers, six months ago, that I would sell goods as cheap as Yankee, Jew or Gentile, and I think I have made my word good.

I told the people to come to Creech's to buy their goods, that I would serve them right. Hundreds have come, and they are still coming from this and adjoining Counties. And I here take the privilege to say I think they have shown their good judgment.

Don't forget to come to

CONSERVATIVE TICKET FOR THE CONVENTION IN WAKE.

HON. DANIEL G. FOWLE,
REV. BENNET T. BLAKE,
PRIESTLY H. MANGUM,
N. J. WHITAKER.

CONVENTION OR NO CONVENTION.

We observe that our excellent cotemporary, the Wilmington Journal, and nearly all the Conservative papers East of Raleigh, are either advocating non-action on the question of Convention, or directly voting "against a Convention," while most of the Conservative papers West of Raleigh either favor voting "for a Convention," or, at least, are opposed to organized opposition to one. This simple fact is significant. This has been the status of feeling for months in the two sections, and ought to admonish our friends of the impossibility of entire unanimity on that point.

Our friend, Maj. John Hughes, of Craven, in a recent letter declining to become a candidate for the State Convention, urges, among other reasons, that his utter repugnance and opposition to the scheme of Congressional re-construction forbid his giving any countenance to it, by becoming a candidate, and recommends either non-action or a direct vote against a Convention. Yet he desires unanimity among the Conservatives, believing it to be essential to success, and recommends that the Conservative Editors of the State meet in this city on the 9th. inst. for consultation, in order to unanimity. The fact that the 9th. is only two days off, and the election only twelve days, will satisfy him that the proposition comes too late, how much soever it would gratify us to meet them.

We feel no anxiety to control public sentiment an iota, in a matter in which so many good Conservatives differ honestly—especially where it is so difficult to determine, satisfactorily to all, the proper course of action. We have, therefore, urged that, in the matter of Convention or No Convention, each voter should be left free to act according to his best judgment. Yet we have never been undecided, at all, on the question of non-action. To do nothing at a time like this, we are confident, can only result in North Carolina, as it has done so far in all the other States, i. e. in the calling of a Convention and a Radical one at that.

No difference of opinion has at any time existed among Conservative men as to the real character of the entire Congressional programme. None have had a shadow of a doubt that the whole scheme was revolutionary, and positively inimical to the future peace and prosperity of the Southern States and people, both white and black. None have endorsed or approved it, in whole or in part. Yet the question, whether we should oppose it out and out, or whether we should take hold of it, so far as to attempt to control the revolution, in order to prevent as much of the evil threatened as possible, has led to this diversity in our proposed action. No Conservative, we presume, has ever made up his mind to give active aid, for a moment, in carrying out the Radical programme. Their position has been to submit to it, if forced upon them, but, nevertheless, to use all legitimate means to defeat the Radicals.

Nothing will be so fatal to our cause, therefore, as non action. The great difficulty has been to get the Conservatives to act—to get them to the polls or to get them even to register. The idea, then, of non-action, in regard to Convention, will prove most fatal to the Conservative candidates. The past history of our people proves that they need no persuasion or inducement or excuse to stay away from the polls. The great matter is, therefore, to leave them no excuse, but to nominate Conservative candidates in every County in the State, and to impress upon the people the necessity of voting upon the question of Convention, according to their best judgment, either for or against Convention.

A careful examination of the registration will serve to convince every one of the difficulty, if not the impossibility, of defeating a Convention. To carry a Convention only requires 83,000 voters to vote on the question and a bare majority of that number in favor of it. With at least 60,000 colored voters already secured for it, is there scarcely doubt that 23,000 whites will vote on the question? If so, no matter how the 23,000 vote, Convention will be carried. But to defeat a Convention will require about 83,000 votes cast against it, or, upon the principle of non-action, it will require that 83,000 voters refuse to vote on the question. Is either within the range of probability? We think not.

The indifference and predisposition of the whites, to take no part in the matter, is palpable. This indifference alone among the whites is sufficient to account for the success of Convention and of the Radicals in the other States. But the indifference or non-action of the other States has not been great enough to accomplish any thing, but their own defeat. As Judge Merrimon remarked in a recent speech, "Our people are so fast becoming educated to oppression, that they seem quite willing, if they are allowed quietly to run a farm, or open a store, or a mechanic's shop, or pursue any other vocation, to forget that they have any rights, or a Constitution, or a Country." Who does not feel the force of this and the truth of it? Action, earnest action, is the only remedy. Bring out your candidates in every County. Canvass effectually. Don't give up the negroes to the control of the Radicals, without a tremendous effort. Run your best men for the Convention and press our enemies to the gate. That is our counsel, whether, after you get the people to the polls, they determine to vote for a Convention or against it. But, it is said, to vote for a Convention is to endorse the Congressional platform. We do not see it, any more than urging the registration was.

THE ELECTIONS ON YESTERDAY.

While the returns from the various State elections held on yesterday are coming in, the following summary will be found useful for reference:

In New York the Republican majority for Governor last year was 13,789. This year a Secretary of State and other State officers were to be chosen, a full State Legislature, and a member of Congress to fill the vacancy in the Oneida District, occasioned by Mr. Conkling's resignation. Homer N. Nelson is the Democratic candidate for Secretary of State, and James B. McKean the Republican.

In Massachusetts the contest was for Governor, State officers and a Legislature. Last year the Republicans had 65,309 majority. The contest now is between Mr. John Q. Adams, Conservative, and Alexander H. Bullock, Republican.

New Jersey elected only a General Assembly. This body now stands as follows: Senate—Democrats, 8; Republicans, 13. House—Democrats, 27; Republicans, 33. Republican majority on joint ballot 11.

Minnesota chose a Governor, State officers, and a Legislature. The candidates for Governor are Charles E. Flandran, Democrat, and William R. Marshall, Republican. The vote stood last year: Radical, 25, 983; Democrat, 15,775; Radical majority, 10,208.

Kansas voted for a Legislature, and also on constitutional amendments giving the suffrage to the negroes and to women. The Republican State Convention have declared themselves in favor of negro suffrage, and "unqualifiedly opposed" to granting this privilege to women. The vote last year was: Radical, 19,370; Democrat, 8,151. The Legislature stands on joint ballot, 18 Democrats and 91 Republicans.

Wisconsin elected a Governor, State officers, and a Legislature on whom will devolve the choice of a successor to Senator Doolittle. The candidates for Governor are John J. Tallmadge, Democrat, and Lucius Fairchild, Republican. The Radical majority for Governor in 1865 was 10,002. Last year, for Congress, the Radical majority was 23,907.

Maryland elected a Legislature.

TENNESSEE,—THE MODEL STATE.

Tennessee is the Radically reconstructed State, that is held up, on all occasions, by the Radical press and speakers, as the great exemplar for North Carolina to imitate.—Whenever they would illustrate the blessings of Radical rule, and the happy results of Radical policy, they point to Brownlow and to Tennessee! There the white man is crushed beneath the heel of negro domination,—there an organized and armed militia, composed of negroes and white desperadoes indiscriminately, plunder and slay inoffensive and harmless citizens, who do not off with the hat and hurrah for the tyrant who lords it over the State,—there social and personal feuds break out daily into open strife. But Tennessee is a noble specimen of good government, and Brownlow is a "glorious old patriot!" The Radical leaders want North Carolina to become another Tennessee and to have a duplicate Brownlow for Governor.

"Look at Tennessee,—look at her on the high road to financial prosperity!" That is the cry. Yes,—look at her. The Comptroller of the State has just made to the Legislature a statement of affairs for the fiscal year ending Sept. 30th. last. From it we learn that the State taxes imposed for the past year amounted to the enormous sum of $1,405,364, while the taxes imposed, during the same period, in North Carolina, under "so-called "Rebel" rule, only amounted to $300,000!

Again, Brownlow's militia,—to keep down good people,—costs the people of the State (including those who are "kept under" and who have to pay the expense of their oppression and humiliation,) $194,595, or two-thirds of what our State, under so-called "Rebel" rule, spends for all purposes, including $40,000 to her maimed and disabled soldiers and $60,000 to her Asylums. Leaving out these charitable objects, the expense of maintaining Brownlow's janissaries alone is equal to the whole expense of the State Government of North Carolina!

These figures speak volumes. What has happened in Tennessee under Radical control will as surely take place in North Carolina, should she be so unfortunate as to pass under the same bitter yoke. Let our farmers, who have to pay a federal tax of 2½ cents per pound on cotton,—let our "working men" and mechanics—let all classes of our people, ponder these facts and figures well! The road to Radicalism is the road to inevitable ruin,—moral and material, State, National and individual!

THE MOST ridiculous and false charge that was ever concocted, even by Radical demagogues, is that the negroes, by voting with the Conservatives, will vote to remand themselves into slavery. The March and September Radical Conventions were composed, so far as the small white element went, "muchly" of old negro-traders.—They are the men who "want their money back."

* * *

THE CHARGE made by the little white Radical squad, that Judge Fowle leads the "secession" ticket, is too amusing to excite anger. Every gentleman on our ticket was an ardent Union man, while the author of the Radical ticket was vindicating secession with his "whole soul."

* * *

WHENEVER you have reason to suspect that any one is registered, who is not entitled to do so, by reason of non-age, or from any other cause, look to it that the matter is sifted, and the lists are purged!

SEE TO IT that no man, white or colored, is allowed to register improperly!

A NEW DODGE.

Mr. Thaddeus Stevens, in a letter written some months since, did not hesitate, with his characteristic boldness, to declare, what every sensible man knows, that the reconstruction programme of Congress is entirely extra constitutional,—not only having no warrant in that instrument, but being violently opposed to its letter and spirit.

He has now taken a new dodge. In a recently published conversation between Mr. Stevens and an individual by the name of Pfeiffer,—which publication is said to have the sanction of the former,—he takes the ground that although the previous action of the Radical party in Congress was unconstitutional, it now has the authority of the Constitution on its side, by virtue of the alleged adoption of the Howard amendment. He says:

"Since the adoption of the fourteenth amendment, I have no doubt of our full power to regulate the elective franchise, so far as it regards the whole nation, in every State of the Union."

The old man is reported to be in almost a moribund condition, with greatly impaired physical and intellectual powers, and this fact may account for such ridiculous twaddle as the above. The Howard amendment is not a part of the Constitution of the United States,—it has not received the sanction of the Legislatures of three fourths of the States of the Union. Its adoption by twenty-seven of them is necessary to give it validity as an article of the Constitution, and it has only been adopted by some nineteen or twenty. The Secretary of State has not promulgated the amendment, as he did in the case of the one prohibiting slavery.

What Mr. Stevens contends for, doubtless, is, that the amendment having been approved by the Legislatures of three-fourths of the "loyal" (so-called) States, it is, therefore, to all intents and purposes, a part of the Constitution, and that the Southern States, not being in the Union, have no right to pass upon amendments to the Constitution. If this is so, why was the Howard amendment originally submitted to them for their voluntary action? And why were they called upon to pass upon the amendment forever hereafter prohibiting slavery?

The fact that the Southern States are as much members of the Union as they ever were, has been fully acknowledged by all the departments of government: By the Congress, in the manner above referred to and in several other ways; by the President, in all the policy of his administration; by the Supreme Court, repeatedly, and by the Chief Justice, emphatically, in his decision, rendered at the last Term of the United States District Court, in Raleigh, in the case of Shortridge vs Macon. That they are not now acknowledged by the Radical leaders in Congress as being in the Union, and that they are deprived of all their Constitutional guarantees and immunities, is solely because of party madness and lust of office. It will never suit these men, if they continue to rule, so to acknowledge these States, until they are thoroughly Africanized and Radicalized. There is no hope for the Country short of the expulsion of the Radical destructives from the places of power which they pollute.

BUT FOUR DAYS ARE LEFT FOR REGISTRATION!

GEN. CANBY'S LAST ORDER.—We have received a copy of Gen. Canby's last order in reference to registration, too late for to-day's issue. We shall publish or notice it on to morrow.

LET NO MAN FAIL TO REGISTER!

REMEMBER THE CONSERVATIVE RATIFICATION MEETING, TO-NIGHT. We hope to see a full attendance of the people, white and colored.

A MEETING of the Conservatives of Iredell was held at Statesville, on Saturday last. Delegates were appointed to the District Convention, which is to assemble at Taylorsville, Alexander County, to-day, for the purpose of nominating five candidates for the Convention.

A similar meeting has been held in Wilkes, at which delegates were also appointed and an excellent series of resolutions adopted.

CANDIDATES IN HYDE.—Capt. Bannester Midyett, Conservative, and A. J. Glover, Radical, are the candidates to represent Hyde in the forthcoming State Convention. We have no doubt of the triumphant election of Capt. Midyett.

It is now well known that the negroes in the South are organizing and arming for some purpose which is not peaceful, and it is also known that some of the district commanders not only permit them to arm, but have furnished them with the necessary equipments. President Johnson has referred the facts in these cases to the head of the War Department, and it is probable that he will increase the military force in the South. —N. Y. Herald.

A NEGRO'S OPINION OF A RADICAL.—In the county of Fauquier an old man named Edward James voted the Radical ticket at the last election, and on his return from the polls he passed through the farm of a gentleman who has "unbleached Americans" hired. Two of these delectable women were standing in front of their respective hovels, and as old James passed by at a short distance from them, one of them saw him first and said to the other: "Susan, yonder's old Mr. James; he voted wid us. Now, ain't he come down mighty low?"—Page Courier.

SENATOR WADE'S SUCCESSOR.—Letters received in this city yesterday confidently announce the certain election of Judge Thurman to the United States Senate, in the place of Mr. Wade. It seems to be conceded that Mr. Vallandingham is not a candidate, and favors the election of Judge Thurman.—National Intelligencer.

Hon. Thomas A. Hendricks, at present in the United States Senate, is to be the Democratic candidate for Governor of Indiana.

It is announced that Admiral Semmes will very soon commence a series of lectures on the Alabama and scientific subjects.

The widow of Miramon, who was shot with Maximilian, has been made a Princess of the Austrian empire, and the title is to be hereditary.

Logan's speeches in Ohio have made him sick—as they have everybody who read them.

We have not seen lately satire more expressive of popular disgust, in respect to the course of the leaders of the negro party, than the following, from the Cincinnati Commercial, (Rad.):

"The party of Mr. Thaddeus Stevens will not be long without due proclamation of their principles. They will remedy the financial evils at once by passing the law, several times proposed by Mr. Stevens, that greenbacks shall be good as gold. Then, if there are persons who ask a premium on gold, they can be hanged as traitors. That's the simple Radical policy for the speedy settlement of the financial question. The next thing is the equally simple and radical measure of selling the land of the Southern States included in the military districts, at auction, to pay the national debt. That will close up the Republican business. As for the Northern elections going away, that is to be remedied by a law of Congress enfranchising all the blacks, and probably an act disfranchising all but strictly loyal whites. Then there will be no more trouble about elections. The President is, of course, to be impeached and suspended from office, and Ben Wade will use the Presidency in the next campaign for the ascendancy of Republican principles. Congress having the right to decide on the qualifications of its members, no man who is not a supporter of Mr. Thaddeus Stevens will be allowed to have a seat. Then, as Mr. Stevens is operating outside the Constitution, and Congress has all needful power, it might as well assume the duties of the Electoral College, and elect a President for life, or during good behavior, or fix his term at forty years, with power to appoint his successor. Then we might fence the country in with a prohibitory tariff—protecting labor as well as capital—by putting an end to immigration from the down trodden population of Europe, as well as the introduction of the products of pauper labor; and then we must reduce the hours of labor to four in twenty-four, giving the laboring man twenty hours of each day to improve his mind and body, in his library and bed chamber; and then we shall have a completed, rounded out, full orbed, happy country, where there will be no wicked to trouble, and no weary to want rest; and we shall all sing Hail Columbia, Happy Land, until time shall be no more."

A Washington correspondent says:

"The Congressional Republican Executive Committee are almost daily receiving letters from the better educated colored men of the Southern States, affirming that they are in great fear of violence from the whites, and suggesting that they should be permitted to organize militia companies.

There is not a single negro anywhere in the South who is afraid of "violence," except those threatened by the secret societies, for voting the Conservative ticket; but this move is intended to afford a pretext for arming the negroes for violence upon their late owners.—Richmond Examiner.

MORE OUTRAGEOUS FRAUDS.—From dispatches from Georgia, it appears that Pope has followed implicitly the bad example of Schofield. Finding that not enough negro votes could be obtained during the time specified for the election to call a State Convention, he has extended the time for voting two days longer, to afford an opportunity to bring in from other States enough negro voters to carry the Convention question.—These frauds are so flagrant, and so openly and unblushingly perpetrated, that even Republican corruption, as it exists in the North, blushes with shame at the bold, base, barefaced outrage.—Nat. Intelligencer.

THE APPROACHING VIRGINIA CONVENTION.—The vagabonds elected to the Convention will hold on, we fear, to the six dollars per day until General Schofield drives them out of the Capitol at the point of the bayonet. Their mouths are watering now for the good things which their expected (not anticipated, thank the stars) per diem will purchase for them. Six dollars a day! Think of it, ye Hunnicutts, and declare whether any men, or set of men, can induce you to adjourn this year.—Richmond Dispatch.

U. S. SOLDIERS NOT TO RECEIVE PRESENTS.—Major General Thomas, commanding the Department of the Cumberland, has issued orders forbidding his soldiers from receiving presents. He says the United States Government compensates its soldiers for their services, and they have no right to expect or claim any further pecuniary reward from any source whatever.

MORE IMMIGRANTS TO VIRGINIA.—We are informed that the officers of the Virginia Immigration Society have tidings of the departure of another lot of immigrants, who are expected to arrive here soon. We are glad to hear of their coming. A wide field is open for them. Lands and employment are abundant. Let them come to Virginia by the ship load, and she will give them a warm welcome.—Lynchburg Virginian.

RECONSTRUCTED.—The city of Richmond, the capitol of the rebellion and headquarters of the Virginia aristocracy, has just elected one native-born New York Yankee, one native born Irishman, one native-born Southern "mean white man," and two colored men to the Convention. Who will now say Richmond is not reconstructed?—Marion Record (Radical.)

We doubt whether Hunnicutt's brains are in danger of a rebel bullet, but some considerate friend would do well to stuff his mouth with a hot potato.—Chicago Post, (Radical.)

A New York correspondent of the Mobile Register says:

"The Germans and the other Radicals are at lager heads."

We hope there is something good brewing.—Augusta Constitutionalist.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

HON. Z. B. VANCE.

The presence of this distinguished gentleman in our City, on yesterday, was sufficient to elicit a spontaneous desire, on the part of all classes of our citizens, to hear him on the great issues of the day. Yielding to pressing solicitations, he addressed the people, at Tucker Hall last night. Notwithstanding the fact that but a few hours' notice of his consent could be given, the immense building was crowded to its utmost capacity. Our people never fail to turn out to hear Vance. No man in North Carolina has, deservedly, so strong a hold upon their affections, and the slightest intimation that he is to speak always suffices to bring out the masses, with whom his name is a "household word."

His speech, last night, was, as usual, powerful and effective. For upwards of an hour, he held his audience spell bound by his argument, eloquence and wit, and was greeted throughout with applause. It was emphatically a great effort, and we wish that every man, white and colored, in North Carolina, could hear his stirring appeals in behalf of Constitutional Union and civil liberty.

The hour at which we go to press precludes a more extended notice, this morning.

J. A. NORRIS, ESQ., DECLINES.

The Conservative Executive Committee of Wake County met on yesterday. J. A. Norris, Esq., who had been nominated as a Conservative candidate for the Convention, having ascertained that his proposal to register had been rejected under the order of Gen. Canby, declined to serve, when, on motion, NATHANIEL J. WHITAKER, Esq. was nominated to fill the vacancy, and, on being notified, accepted.

This is an excellent nomination. Few of our young men have made themselves more useful than Mr. Whitaker, or shown themselves more capable and efficient as business men. His record as a sound Conservative man will be every way acceptable to his fellow-citizens of the County, and his intelligence, integrity and energy will commend him as a suitable candidate for a seat in the Convention. Mr. W. is a native of Wake, and a farmer and working man. We raise his name to our mast-head, and will give him our warmest support.

RATIFICATION MEETING!

There will be a meeting of the Conservatives of Wake, at Tucker Hall, in this City, on Wednesday night, for the purpose of ratifying the nomination of the Convention, on Thursday last. All the friends of Constitutional Union are invited to be present. Come out, people of Wake, and let us have a grand rally!

APPOINTMENTS OF THE CONSERVATIVE CANDIDATES.

The following appointments have been made by the Conservative candidates for the Convention in this County. We understand that the Radical nominees have been invited to meet them at the various places named, and it is understood that they will do so.

The people of the County, white and colored, are invited to turn out and hear the discussions:

WEIGHTS AND MEASURES.

The learned gentleman appointed by his Excellency, Gov. Worth, the Keeper of the Standard Weights and Measures recently furnished this State by the National Government, has given us an interesting description of them, which we take pleasure in laying before our readers.

By a resolution of Congress of June 14th., 1836, it was ordered, "That the Secretary of the Treasury be directed to cause a complete set of all the weights and measures adopted as standards, to be delivered to the Governor of each State in the Union, or such person as he may appoint, for the use of the States respectively, to the end that a uniform standard of weights and measures may be established throughout the United States."

In conformity with this resolution, besides other instances of such distribution, there has been, on application by Governor Worth, recently sent to this State, a very complete set of Standard Weights and Measures, and, what has not been previously supplied, two most exquisitely executed Balances,—one for determining larger, and the other smaller weights.

The weights and measures are contained in seven boxes. 1. Holding a 50 and a 25lb. avoirdupois. 2. From 20 to 1lb. avoirdupois inclusive; as, also, a 1lb. troy. The difference between the avoirdupois and the troy pound being that the former is equivalent to 7,000 grains troy, and the latter to 5,760 grains troy. No. 3. contains troy weights, from 10 oz. to the one ten-thousandth part of an oz. The 4th. box contains avoirdupois weights, from 8oz. to the one ten-thousandth part of an oz. The minutest divisions of weights in these two boxes,—that is to say from the five-hundredths of an oz. to the one ten thousandth,—are made of silver wire. The number of sides of the figure into which they are formed denote the weight; as for instance a pentagon, or five sided figure, for five ten-thousandths of an oz.; a quadrilateral or four sided figure, for four ten-thousandths of an oz.; a triangle for three ten-thousandths; an angle for two ten-thousandths, and a small bar for one ten thousandth.—The 5th. box has in it a half bushel measure. The 6th. a gallon measure. The 7th. the divisions of the gallon, down to half a pint inclusive. In addition to these, there is also a standard yard measure in its proper case.

All these weights and measures, with the exception of those of silver wire, are exquisitely made of brass, and have been the admiration, not only of men of science at home, but abroad, and especially in France, to the government of which country a complete set of these weights and measures had been sent, through the instrumentality of M. Vattemare. This gentlemen, some of us will remember, on his visit to this place, when he was engaged in the endeavor to institute exchanges of books and works of art between the United States and France.

But the chief objects of admiration are two balances, of which no better description can be given than that sent by M. Silberman, Superintendent of the Conservatory of Arts and Trades of France, to Mons. Alex. Vattemare. He writes:

"In answer to your request relative to my opinion concerning the weights and measures, and the instruments of weighing and measuring, you have intrusted to me for the Conservatory of Arts and Trades:" * * *

In the first place, I will communicate to you the opinion of connoisseurs, and I beg of you to believe that each instrument has been well examined and well appreciated. This opinion is, that all these articles are of irreproachable execution; the two balances, particularly, are the object of universal admiration. Public opinion cannot go further. In testimony of the esteem in which I hold these balances, I cannot say more than that I used the small one to adjust the platinum killogramme, which was exhibited at the World's Fair in London. It is very delicate, and especially most constant. I was able to make all my weighings with certainty to within half a millegramme. The form adopted for these balances is at once simple, well adapted to use, and distinguished by that taste which is only to be found in instruments made by master hands. These are justly to be termed instruments of precision.

What I have just said with regard to the small balance, I may repeat with still more propriety respecting the large one. It is not inferior to the former in precision. In fact, I have tested it with ten killogrammes* in each scale, and it promptly indicates a difference of one half a millegramme* between the two weights, that is to say one unit in twenty millions, in each scale. I have been obliged several times to repeat this experiment in the presence of incredulous persons, and it has always given the same results."

*A killogramme is about 2lb. 8oz. 3 dwt. Troy.

*A millegrame about fifteen hundredths of a grain.

SEVENTH DISPATCH.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6—12½ A. M.

A dispatch from police headquarters makes the Democratic majority in the city 61,450.

NEW JERSEY.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5, 8 P. M.

Trenton, Elizabeth and New Brunswick have gone Democratic. The returns so far indicate that the Democrats have carried the Legislature. The vote is very large.

SECOND DISPATCH

WASHINGTON, 10, P. M.

Camden County, New Jersey, elects the whole Democratic ticket by 500 majority.

THIRD DISPATCH.

WASHINGTON, 12, M.

The New Jersey Legislature is undoubtedly democratic.

KANSAS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5, P. M.

The Republicans carry the Kansas Legislature by a decreased majority. The negro suffrage amendment is behind the ticket, but is probably carried. Female suffrage is lost by several thousand.

MASSACHUSETTS.

BOSTON, Nov. 5—8 P. M.

Adams carries Boston by 1,485. The same gain throughout the State, however, would not elect Adams, but would show a Republican loss of 20,000.

SECOND DISPATCH.

BOSTON, 9 P. M.

The returns come in slowly. Bullock's majority will be small. The Legislature will be liberal.

THIRD DISPATCH.

WASHINGTON, 10 P. M.

A reliable Boston dispatch says the Republicans acknowledge a loss in Massachusetts of 43,000. They claim the State by 17,500.

WISCONSIN.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5, 8 P. M.

The returns from Wisconsin show democratic gains, and Fairchild (Republican) is running behind his ticket.

SECOND DISPATCH.

WASHINGTON, 12 P. M.

The returns indicate that the vote is very close.

MINNESOTA.

WASHINGTON, 12 P. M.

The returns justify the impression that Minnesota has gone for the Democrats.

MARYLAND.

WASHINGTON, Nov 5, 6 P. M.

The entire Democratic ticket is elected in Maryland.

POLITICAL MATTERS IN WILMINGTON.

WILMINGTON, Nov. 5, P. M.

The registration books were re-opened to-day. Result, 25 whites and 2 blacks.

The result of the Northern elections is anxiously looked for. The Republicans here are getting split. Another County ticket is talked of.

FROM RICHMOND.

RICHMOND, Nov. 5, P. M.

Gen. Schofield has written a letter to Gov. Pierpoint, informing him that the regular Winter Session of the Legislature for this Winter will be dispensed with.

Five companies of troops have been ordered to Washington for Winter quarters.

DENIED—MR. DAVIS' TRIAL, &C.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5, M.

The Times' special says it is false that astounding accounts have reached Gen. Grant, and of his sending down orders to preserve peace at all hazards.

A special to the Herald says Mr. Davis' trial will be postponed till May at the request of the prosecution.

General Sherman has issued general orders to his troops announcing treaties of peace with certain Indians.

The President is considering the pardon of James A. Seddon, endorsed by Greeley, Burnside and others.

FOREIGN.

PARIS, Nov. 5—P. M.

The Moniteur says that a fight near Ticola, 3,000 insurgents were killed, wounded, and made prisoners.

Garibaldi himself and his son Menotti were captured at Terni and sent to Florence as prisoners of war. Four thousand Garibaldians, while on a march to reinforce the insurgents, were stopped, disarmed and turned back.

The greatest agitation prevails.

DAILY SENTINEL.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1867.

AUTUMN.

Farewell! thou dying Year, farewell!
Thy reign is almost o'er;
Fled the freshness of vernal hours,
The glory of thy summer bowers—
And e'en thy last pale ling'ring flowers
Will soon be here no more!

'Tis sad to see the hues of death
Fast stealing o'er thy bloom,
To hear the fitful Autumn gale
Sweep through the lonely wood and vale,
Breathing its low, prophetic wail,
O'er thy approaching doom!

To me, in every passing breeze,
There is a tone of grief,
Recalling hopes of vanished years,
Now only seen thro' Memory's tears—
An emblem of whose fate appears,
In every falling leaf!

Perhaps there are bright eyes that weep
To see thee pass away,
Who in thy course, departing year,
Have ne'er been dimm'd by sorrow's tear;
And blest with all of bright and dear,
Would gladly woo thy stay.

But there are some whose hearts are glad,
Thy darksome reign is o'er—
Who would not live thine hours again,
For riches of the earth and main;
But joy those days of care and pain,
To them can come no more.

For thou hast seen the dearest ties
Of earthly feeling broken!
To be renewed, oh! never more,
Unless on that eternal shore,
Where, grief and death forever o'er,
No parting words are spoken!

Then fare thee well, departing Year!
I would not woo thy stay;
Thy sighing winds breathe of the tomb;
Thy fading roses speak the doom
Of the heart's cherished hopes, whose bloom,
Like thine, has passed away!

LETTER FROM A GHOST.

The following communication, which appears in the Rome, Ga., Courier, has the ear marks of Bill Arp's old Confederate ghost:

TO THE VOTERS OF THE FORTY-SECOND DISTRICT.

Mr. Editor:—If you think its not too late, and wont charge anything for my "card," you will announce my name for the convention as any man's candidate who will vote for me. To save answering a thousand questions, I will proceed to state what I'm for and what I'm agin.

I'm for a Convention, if it has got to be held. I'm against it if it ain't held. I can't tell you whether it will be held or not. Like my friend Parrott, I'm for the good of my constituents in all things, and I look upon those who vote for me as my constituents, whether bleached or unbleached. The white men who support me must let me know what they want done, and I will introduce a bill. The negroes who vote for me shall have abundant consideration. They must let me know whether they want money or mules, or tobacco, or more or less freedom. I'm for 'em, and will introduce a Bill, and will pledge myself to advocate their right of suffrage forever—in Ohio. I'm like my friend, the General. Says I, "General are you for my color, or what color are you for?" Says he, proudly, "I'm for black."

I'm for Union—Union of some sort—dis Union or dat Union, or some other sort not discovered. Its high time we had one of some sort. I'm for the Star Spangled Banner, and the pole and the rope—I like the stars more than I do the stripes. I am glad to see the stars all up there; though I have thought sometimes that a little black crape ought to shade a few of them until we are restored to the Union.

If the military can vote, and will vote for me, I'm for 'em. I'll vote for 'em all to have long furloughs—I want 'em all to have good homes, and go to 'em—there's nothing like a good home, and I know fond parents want to see 'em. I like to hear the sound of a drum—fish under a boat. I like the morning toot of a horn—when John Graves is a blowin' it on Horse Leg Mountain.

Likewise, I'm for the bureau—of agriculture that General Black is agent for in this county. If you want to see—seed, go for General Black—though he says he's a good Union man.

I'm for a portion of the State road.

I'm for relief. I'm for that strong, personally, just like my friend Green Ware.—But I want to relieve the debtor and the creditor too, and if I can't frame a bill that will do it, I don't know who can. My plan is to frame a bill that will keep a man from paying what he owes, and at the same time enable him to collect what's owen to him. I would like to see the man who aint for that sort of a bill. Forty men have told me they was pleased with the idea.

I'm for rain.

N. B.—Warnin to voters!—I want to borrow two dollars. A. G.

STONEWALL JACKSON—A CHARACTERISTIC INCIDENT.

In the Religious Herald for this week we find the following interesting incident in the life of Jackson, which gives us an insight into some of the thoughts that occupied his mind the day after the great battle in which he won his immortal soubriquet of "Stonewall:"

A few days after the first battle of Manassas an eager, anxious crowd was assembled at the Post Office in Lexington, Virginia, on the arrival of the mail. The greatest excitement prevailed, and tidings "from the front" were eagerly sought after. The venerable Dr. White (pastor of the Presbyterian church) took a letter from the post office, and, recognizing it as in the handwriting of Brigadier General (afterwards "Stonewall") Jackson, he said to the crowd, "Here is a letter from General Jackson—now we will have full and authentic particulars of the battle." The crowd eagerly asked him to read aloud, and pressed round to hear the expected stirring news from the field of conflict. He broke the seal, and, to the disappointment of all, found only these few lines:

MANASSAS JUNCTION, July 22, 1861.

"My Dear Pastor:—I remember that my subscription to Domestic Missions is about due. Please find enclosed $50.

Yours very truly,
T. J. JACKSON."

No word about the great battle in which he had played so conspicuous a part—no time or inclination to tell of those heroic deeds which rendered famous, forever, "Stonewall Jackson and the Stonewall Brigade"—but he could afford the time to send to his pastor money which he had promised to the treasury of the Lord.

The example of this great and good man teaches a lesson which many would do well to heed.

Gen. Canby's Election Order.

HEADQ'RS SECOND MILITARY LIST,
CHARLESTON, S. C., Oct. 18, 1867.

General Orders No. 161.

By the terms of the Act of Congress entitled "An Act to provide for the more efficient government of the Rebel States," passed March 2d, 1867, and of the Acts of March 23d, and July 19th, 1867, supplementary thereto,—it is made the duty of the Commanding General of this Military District to cause a registration to be made of the male inhabitants of the State of North Carolina, of the age of twenty-one years and upwards and qualified by the terms of said Acts to vote, and after such registration is complete, to order an election to be held at which the registered voters of said State shall vote for or against a Convention, for the purpose of establishing a Constitution and civil government for the said State, loyal to the Union, and for delegates to said Convention—and to give at least thirty days' notice of the time and place at which said election shall be held; and the said registration having been completed in the State of North Carolina, It is ordered:

First, That an election be held in the State of North Carolina, commencing on Tuesday, the 19th day of November, 1867, and ending on Wednesday, the 20th day of November, 1867, at which all registered voters of said State may vote "For a Convention," or "Against a Convention," and for delegates to constitute the Convention—in case a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a Convention, and in case a majority of the registered voters shall have voted on the question of holding such Convention.

Second. It shall be the duty of the Boards of Registration in North Carolina, commencing fourteen days prior to the election herein ordered, and giving reasonable public notice of the time and place thereof, to revise for a period of five days the registration lists, and upon being satisfied that any person not entitled thereto has been registered to strike the name of such person from the list; and such person shall not be entitled to vote. The Boards of Registration shall also, during the same period, add to such registers the names of all persons who at that time possess the qualifications required by said Acts—who have not already been registered.

Third. In deciding who are to be stricken from or added to the registration lists, the Boards will be guided by the law of March 2d, 1867, and the laws supplementary thereto, and their attention is specially directed to the Supplementary Act of July 19th, 1867.

Fourth. The said election will be held in each County or District at such places as may hereafter be designated, under the superintendence of the Boards of Registration as provided by law, and in accordance with instructions hereafter to be given to said Boards in conformity with the Acts of Congress and as far as may be with the laws of North Carolina.

Fifth. All Judges and Clerks employed in conducting said election shall, before commencing to hold the same, be sworn to the faithful performance of their duties, and shall also take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by law for officers of the United States.

Sixth. The polls shall be opened at such voting places at eight o'clock in the forenoon, and closed at four in the afternoon, of each day, and shall be kept open during these hours without intermission or adjournment.

Seventh. No member of the Board of Registration, who is a candidate for election as a delegate in the Convention, shall serve as a Judge of the election in any County or District which he seeks to represent.

Eighth. The Sheriff and other peace officers of each County are required to be present during the whole time that the polls are kept open, and until the election is completed; and will be made responsible that there shall be no interference with Judges of elections, or other interruption of good order. If there should be more than one polling place in any County, the sheriff of the County is empowered to make such assignments of his deputies, and other peace officers, to the other polling places, as may, in his judgment, best subserve the purposes of quiet and order; and be is further required to report these arrangements in advance to the Commander of the Military Post in which his County is situated.

Ninth. Violence, or threats of violence, or of discharge from employment, or other oppressive means to prevent any person from registering, or exercising his right of voting, is positively prohibited, and any such attempts will be reported by the Registrars or Judges of elections to the Post Commander, and will cause the arrest and trial of the offenders by military authority.

Tenth. All bar rooms, saloons, and other places for the sale of liquors by retail, will be closed from 6 o'clock of the evening of the 18th of November, until 6 o'clock of the morning of the 21st of November, 1867, and during this time the sale of all intoxicating liquors at or near any polling place is prohibited. The police officers of cities and towns, and the Sheriffs and other peace officers of Counties, will be held responsible for the strict enforcement of this prohibition, and will promptly arrest and hold for trial all persons who may transgress it.

Eleventh. Military interference with elections "unless it shall be necessary to repel the armed enemies of the United States, or to keep the peace at the polls," is prohibited by the Act of Congress approved February 25th, 1865, and no soldiers will be allowed to appear at any polling place, unless as citizens of the State they are qualified and are registered as voters, and then only for the purpose of voting; but the Commanders of Posts will keep their troops well in hand on the days of election, and will be prepared to act promptly if the civil authorities are unable to preserve the peace.

Twelfth. The returns required by law to be made to the Commander of the District of the results of this election, will be rendered by the Boards of Registration of the several registration precincts through the Commanders of the Military Posts in which their precincts are situated, and in accordance with the detailed instructions hereafter to be given.

Thirteenth. The number of delegates to the Convention is determined by law and is the number of members of the most numerous branch of the Legislature for the year eighteen hundred and sixty, and this number, one hundred and twenty, is apportioned to the representative Districts of the State in the ratio of registered voters as follows:

RAILROADS.

ATLANTIC & N. C. RAILROAD
AND
NORTH CAROLINA
GRAND TRUNK RAILROAD,
From Charlotte and all Points on the N. Carolina and its Connecting Railroads, to the Seaboard at Newbern and Morehead City.

THE STATE OWNS THREE-FOURTHS OF the North Carolina Railroad and three-fourths of the ATLANTIC & N. C. RAILROAD. This is the

STATE LINE,

To its OWN SEAPORTS and on its OWN ROADS. All other lines are in opposition.

A six per cent dividend on this line will save the people from taxation $295,000 per annum.

Under a resolution of the Stockholders of the N. C. Railroad, all Freights are to go via Goldsboro', unless otherwise specially directed by shippers.

When at Goldsboro', you are only sixty miles from the shipping point, instead of one hundred and sixty via Weldon, and eighty via Wilmington. Our Steamers are equal to any other line, both for Freight and Travel. Time as short as by any other, and as cheap.

THIS is the Line

To ENCOURAGE. You get dispatch, safety, but one handling, and less Railroad transportation than by any other line.

Three-fourths of the PROFITS made on this line go directly into the STATE TREASURY, and if encouraged, you will soon be relieved from heavy taxation at least two hundred and ninety-five thousand dollars.

The Railroads composing the N. C. GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY LINE have recently agreed to unite in a

GREAT THROUGH LINE

Route to all the Northern Markets, on equal terms and charges, via our own ports to and from the North.

Cars run through to all points without breaking bulk.

For information about shipping, apply to Messrs,
WHEDBEE & DICKINSON, Baltimore.

TO SHIPPERS.

NORTH CAROLINA
ALL STATE
RAILWAY LINES, (THAT USED TO BE!)
THE OLD RALEIGH & GASTON RAIL ROAD, THE SHORTEST, QUICKEST, SAFEST AND BEST LINE, NORTH AND SOUTH, TO BE LEFT OUT IN THE COLD, UNLESS SHIPPERS SPECIALLY SAY VIA. R. & G. R. R!

WE inaugurated and are the Great through Inland Air Line Route to all the Northern Markets, and have successfully worked the Line to the entire satisfaction of Shippers, North and South, for the last ten years, as the ten Thousand Shippers in North and South Carolina will testify. We paid the State near Seven Hundred Thousand Dollars for her Interest in this Road—thereby saving the people from Taxation for all time to come $40,000 per year; and we unhesitatingly declare that we can and will give more dispatch to all points, North and South, than any other Line.

NOTICE!

The Great Inland Air Line Freight
ROUTE,
Via THE RALEIGH & GASTON RAIL ROAD,

is the Short Line for Shippers, and you are required so to direct your Freights, or they will be taken by another Route!

To Insure your Freight being carried over this Great Inland Air Line safely, direct your consignees to mark your Freight, Care of Rail Road Agent, Portsmouth, Va., or City Point Va., via Raleigh & Gaston Rail Road, and to ship as follows:

THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER.

This Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine

IS OFFERED TO THE Public as a ready, certain and speedy means of preventing LARGE CONFLAGRATIONS.

Until the invention of the

Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine,

Fires have been met by means too slow, too late and too cumbrous. But few persons in this country have the advantage of large hand or Steam Fire Engines, and those few often suffer a total loss of their property by reason of the great length of time consumed in sending for and getting them into working order.

BUT NOT SO WITH THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER,

which, being kept charged and standing in your House, Store or Factory, is always Ready for Instant Service.

The fire can be extinguished and your property saved without loss or damage, or even an alarm of Fire.

The first few minutes of conflagration decide the fate of the property; "a little fire is quickly put out, which, being suffered, rivers cannot quench."

THE EXTINGUISHER, being very simple in its operation, and entirely self-propelling, requires no previous skill or practice to operate it, and being so light, portable and self-acting, is capable of being used in any place, by any person, male or female.

It puts out all fires, arising from whatever cause.

You are saved from the immense water damage caused by large Engines.

You can effect insurance on your property

At Lower Rates,

if protected by the Extinguisher.

The Extinguisher is no humbug, as thousands of good men in Europe and America will testify.

I have already put these little Engines into some of our best Factories and largest Schools in N. C.

No House, Store, Factory, or Corporation is safe without them.

The price is as nothing, compared with the protection they afford.
